Number 852-HL

To:
Graco Distributor's in Australia and New Zealand

Subject:
Graco® products purchased from unauthorized distributors for sale to customers in Australia and New Zealand.

Graco® products purchased from authorized distributors located in Australia and New Zealand (ANZ) have been carefully designed, tested and certified to meet the functional and regulatory requirements of the ANZ markets, and are warranted to be free from defects in material and workmanship in accordance with the written warranty accompanying such products at the time of purchase.

Graco products that are not purchased from authorized distributors located in ANZ are not designed, tested, certified or intended for use in the ANZ markets, and any manufacturer's warranties accompanying such products at the time of purchase are considered void. Therefore, Graco will not authorize warranty service on any products purchased from unauthorized distributors or imported from outside ANZ.
