Short Description

Atomex Air Lubricator With Adjustable Oil Metering is designed to feed air tool lubricant into your compressed air supply when using air tools. The adjustable oil metering allows you to control the amount of oil fed into the air system.

Description

Compressed air lubricators are commonly used on pneumatic air motors and air tools such as ratchets, impact guns and nail guns. Air Lubricators ensure adequate lubrication is supplied in situations where operators or applicators forget to manually lubricate equipment.

Atomex Air Lubricator With Adjustable Oil Metering will help keep your air tools lubricated.

Atomex Air Lubricator With Adjustable Oil Metering feature -

- Adjustable oil metering control
- Removable bowl to refill oil

Atomex Air Lubricators are available in the following sizes -
